

close the market for the day regardless of when hit.

The Exchange has continued to discuss changes to circuit breaker parameters with the Commission and other self-regulatory organizations, particularly following the first triggering of circuit breakers on October 27, 1997, when the 350 and 550 point parameters represented moves in the DJIA of about 4.5 percent and 7.2 percent, respectively. These trigger levels represented market declines that were, in percentage terms, far less than the 250 and 400 point triggers implemented by all markets in October 1988, when they represented moves in the DJIA of about 12 percent and 19 percent, respectively. Therefore, a number of industry participants have expressed the view that the October 27, 1997 halt was unnecessary, and that circuit breaker parameters should be triggered only during periods of extraordinary market volatility. In addition, the Amex and other options exchanges have recognized the importance of maximizing the opportunity to allow the markets to have a normal end of the day close, particularly on Expiration Fridays. The proposed amendments to Rule 117 are responsive to these views, and provide the advantage of regular adjustments to circuit breaker thresholds to account for DJIA fluctuations.

The adoption of the proposed amendments to Exchange Rule 117 would be contingent upon the adoption of amended rules or procedures substantively identical to Rule 117 by:

(1) All United States securities exchanges and the National Association of Securities Dealers with respect to the trading of stocks, stock options and stock index options; and

(2) All United States futures exchanges with respect to the trading of stock index futures and options on such futures.

2. Basis

The Exchange believes that the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)⁵ of the Act, in general, and Section 6(b)(5)⁶ of the Act, in particular, in that it is designed to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market, to promote just and equitable principles of trade and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.

⁶ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(5).

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments on the proposed rule change were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Within 35 days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register or within such longer period (i) As the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the self-regulatory organization consents, the Commission will:

(A) by order approve such rule change, or

(B) institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons making written submissions should file six copies thereof with the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549. Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Room, located at the above address. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the self-regulatory organization. All submissions should refer to File No. SR-Amex-98-09 and should be submitted by March 20, 1998.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

Margaret H. McFarland,

Deputy Secretary.
